

Groton Senior Center Presents:

October 16, 2014 Thursday

- One of the foremost public gardens in America and a National Historic Landmark, the NEW YORK BOTANICAL GARDEN encompasses 250 acres of beautiful natural terrain with dramatic rock outcroppings, a river and cascading waterfall, undulating hills, wetlands, ponds, and 50 acres of historic, uncut forest.
- Discover the exquisite beauty of kiku—meticulously cultivated chrysanthemums, a traditional Japanese art. Marvel at the dramatic shapes, vibrant colors, and perfect blossoms that characterize the specialized styles of displaying kiku. These techniques have been developed over 1,500 years.
- Time on Arthur Avenue for lunch and shopping
